"Subprocessor" means any third party authorized by Vercel to Process Customer Personal Data in connection with the Agreement with respect to providing Services under the Agreement or this Addendum.

3. General; Termination

1. This Addendum forms part of the Agreement and except as expressly set forth in this Addendum, the Agreement remains unchanged and in full force and effect. If there is any conflict between the Agreement and this Addendum, the terms of this will govern.
2. Any obligations arising under this Addendum are subject to the limitations of liability in the Agreement.
3. This Addendum will be governed by and construed in accordance with governing law and jurisdiction provisions in the Agreement, unless required otherwise by Applicable Data Protection Laws.
4. This Addendum will remain in effect until, and automatically terminate upon, deletion of Customer Data as described in this Addendum.

4. Relationship of the Parties

1. Vercel as Processor. The parties acknowledge and agree that with respect to the Processing of Customer Data for Customers who are or Enterprise or Pro plans, Customer is a Controller and Vercel is a Processor. Vercel will Process the Personal Data only as provided in this Addendum and in accordance with Customer's instructions on behalf of the Controller as outlined in Section 8 Rights and Scope of Processing of Personal Data.
2. Vercel as Controller. To the extent Vercel and Services Development Data is considered Personal Data and is in any Control Data, Vercel is the Controller of such data and will Process such data in accordance with Vercel's Privacy Notice. For the avoidance of doubt, Customer does not apply when Vercel Processes Customer Data as a Controller.

5. Compliance with Law

Each party will comply with its obligations under Applicable Data Protection Laws with respect to its Processing of Customer Data.

6. Role and Scope of the Processing

1. Customer Responsibilities. Customer is solely responsible for obtaining and maintaining all the necessary consents to, or providing notice, permitting, processing or sharing Customer Data in the Services Customer has provided any notice and has all rights and necessary consents and permissions, and notices and authorizations, and rights of processing under applicable laws, including Applicable Data Protection Laws, for the Processing of Personal Data in connection with the Services, for the purposes contemplated by the Agreement. Customer has complied with all Applicable Data Protection Laws in the collection and provision to Vercel and its Sub-Processors of any Personal Data, and Customer shall not perform its obligations under this Addendum in such a way as to cause Vercel to violate any Applicable Data Protection Laws.
2. Vercel Processing of Customer Data. Vercel and Processor Certain Data only in accordance with Customer's documented lawful instructions, as set forth in this Addendum, or as required by Applicable Data Protection Laws, to which Vercel and its Sub-Processors are subject, in which case Vercel or the applicable Sub-Processor shall inform the Customer (unless that law prohibits Vercel or the applicable Sub-Processor from doing so on important grounds of public interest). Processing outside the scope of this Addendum or the Agreement will require prior written agreement between Customer and Vercel on additional instructions for Processing. Processing Customer Data pursuant to the Agreement and Customer's use of Vercel's technology and services, including the Services, and as set forth in the Agreement and in this Addendum, is deemed lawful instructions. Customer is responsible for ensuring that all Processing of Personal Data by Customer and its Affiliates, and by Vercel and its Sub-Processors at the instruction given to Vercel by Customer, is in accordance with Applicable Data Protection Laws.
3. Vercel as Controller. To the extent required by Applicable Data Protection Laws, Vercel is the Controller of certain Personal Data in connection with Vercel's business relations with Customer, including but not limited to business contact information, billing information, and Vercel's interaction with Vercel's websites, applications, and services. Vercel may Process such Personal Data in accordance with its privacy notices and Applicable Data Protection Laws, including for the purposes of preventing fraud, illegal activity, or misuse of Vercel's Services, and Vercel's use of such Personal Data is not subject to the terms of this Addendum.

7. Subprocessing

1. Customer grants Processor Certain Data to its Affiliates as Subprocessors, and generally authorizes Vercel to engage Subprocessors to Process Customer Data ("Subprocessors"). Vercel shall: (a) enter into a written agreement with each Subprocessor imposing data protection obligations substantially similar to those set out in this Addendum to the extent applicable to the nature of the services provided by such Subprocessor; and (b) remain liable for the acts and omissions of its Subprocessors and for any acts or omissions of the Subprocessor that cause Vercel to breach any of its obligations under this Addendum.
2. Vercel's Sub-Processors are listed at https://vercel.com/legal/dpa#exhibit-a, available at https://vercel.com/legal/ and may be updated by Vercel from time to time in accordance with this Addendum.
3. Vercel's Sub-Processors are listed at https://vercel.com/legal/ or otherwise communicated by Vercel to Customer in the Data. Customer is subscribed to notice of new Subprocessors, and Vercel will notify Customer of any changes to its Sub-Processors and Subprocessors and, if Customer has subscribed to notices as set forth in the Agreement, Vercel will provide Customer with notice of any changes to its Sub-Processors. Customer shall have a right to object to Vercel's appointment of a new Subprocessor based on reasonable data protection concerns, the parties will discuss such concerns in good faith. If Customer and Vercel are unable to resolve such dispute, Customer and Vercel will cooperate in good faith to discuss commercially reasonable alternative solutions, which may be, at Vercel's sole option, and in Customer's sole discretion, Customer may terminate the Agreement for convenience or cease using the applicable Services which cannot be provided by Vercel without the use of the objected-to new Subprocessor.

8. Rights and Scope of Processing Certain Data

1. Security Measures. Vercel will implement and maintain technical and organizational measures in relation to Processing of Certain Data by Vercel. Security measures are to preserve the security and confidentiality of the Customer Data, in accordance with Vercel's security standards attachment to the Agreement ("Vercel Security Standards") and Vercel's Security and Privacy documentation, as updated from time to time, and upon request by Customer.
2. Customer Responsibility.
   - Customer is responsible for reviewing the information made available by Vercel relating to data security and making an independent determination as to whether the Services meet Customer's requirements and legal obligations under Applicable Data Protection Laws, including Customer's obligations that the Security Measures provide a level of security appropriate to the risk in respect of the Customer Data and that they may be updated from time to time to reflect improvements in commercial practices. Customer acknowledges and agrees that (taking into account the nature of Customer's use of the Services, Vercel's obligations pursuant to this Section and Vercel's Security Standards attachment to the Agreement) the Security Measures implemented and maintained by Vercel are sufficient to ensure a level of security appropriate to the risk in respect of the Customer Data and that they may be updated from time to time to reflect improvements in commercial practices.
   - Customer agrees that, without limitation of Vercel's obligations under this Section, Customer is solely responsible for its use of the Services, including (a) making appropriate use of the Services to ensure a level of security appropriate to the risk in respect of the Customer Data, (b) securing the account authentication credentials, systems and devices Customer uses to access the Services, (c) securing Customer's systems and devices that Vercel uses to provide the Services, and (d) properly configuring the Services.
3. Security Incident. To the extent required by Applicable Data Protection Laws, Vercel will notify Customer without undue delay after it becomes aware of a Customer without undue delay (and within 72 hours) (notwithstanding that it may be giving such notice requested by law enforcement and/or in light of Vercel's investigation of the Personal Data Breach) after it becomes aware of a Personal Data Breach affecting Customer Data, and, to the extent possible, the details of the Security Incident are known or are reasonable expected to be known by Vercel, Vercel shall provide Customer with such details as reasonably required to enable Customer to perform an assessment of the Personal Data Breach in accordance with Applicable Data Protection Laws, including obligations under the Section 83. Customer is solely responsible for complying with Security Incident notification laws applicable to Customer and fulfilling any third-party notification obligations related to any Security Incidents. Vercel's notification of or response to a Security Incident under this Section 3c, will not be construed as an acknowledgment by Vercel of any fault or liability with respect to the Security Incident. These obligations will not apply to Security Incidents to the extent they are caused by Customer.

9. Audits and Reviews of Compliance

The parties acknowledge that Customer must be able to assess Vercel's compliance with its obligations under Applicable Data Protection Laws and this Addendum insofar as Vercel is acting as a processor on behalf of Customer.

1. Vercel's Audit Program. Vercel uses external auditors to verify the adequacy of its security measures with respect to its processing of Customer Data. Such audits: (a) are at least annually; (b) are conducted in accordance with standards in accordance with applicable regulations and Vercel's policies and standards; (c) are performed by independent third party security professionals at Vercel's election; and (d) will result in Vercel's current SOC 2 Type 2 report ("Vercel Audit Report"). Upon Customer's written and confidential request, and subject to Customer's execution of Vercel's standard confidentiality agreement, Vercel will make such information available to Customer's supervisory authority with jurisdiction over Customer's Processing of Customer Data to the extent Vercel is required by Applicable Data Protection Laws.
2. Customer Audit. Customer's rights under Applicable Data Protection Laws to conduct reasonable confidentiality controls, Vercel will make available to Customer a copy of Vercel's most recent Vercel Report. Customer agrees that any audits will be carried out by Vercel's Vercel Audit Report.

10. Impact Assessments and Consultations

Vercel will provide reasonable cooperation to Customer, to the extent Customer does not otherwise have access to the relevant information and such information is available to Vercel, for any Data Protection Impact Assessment or any prior consultation with Customer's supervisory or if such reasonable cooperation will require Vercel to assign significant resources to that effort, provided that Vercel's compliance with regulatory authorities as required by Applicable Data Protection Laws.

11. Data Subject Requests

Vercel will open Customer's request Vercel at of Customer's purposed process Customer with such assistance as may reasonably require to comply with its obligations under Applicable Data Protection Laws to respond to requests from individuals to exercise their rights under Applicable Data Protection Laws ("Data Subject Requests"). Vercel, taking into account the nature of the Processing of Customer Data, shall use commercially reasonable efforts to assist Customer in responding to Data Subject Requests and to Process Data Subject Requests over the Services, to the extent Customer is not able to fulfill such Data Subject Requests using the functionality of the Services. If Vercel receives a request from a Data Subject in connection with the Services, Vercel will advise the Data Subject to contact the Customer in lieu of responding to such request.

12. Return or Deletion of Customer Data

1. Customer may elect to export Customer Data at any time during the Services in a manner consistent with the functionality of the Services. Termination or expiration of the Agreement shall terminate Customer's right to access or export Customer Data. Vercel may then, in its sole discretion, delete all Customer Data stored or Processed by Vercel in connection with the Agreement. Customer Data if requested by law and such data will remain subject to the requirements of this Addendum.

13. International Provisions

1. Processing in the United States. Customer acknowledges that, as of the Effective Date of the Agreement, Vercel is a data processor located in the United States. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Customer acknowledges that Vercel may in its sole discretion Process Certain Data in any country in which Vercel or its Sub-Processors maintain facilities. Customer Data is at the United States and anywhere else in the world where Vercel, its Affiliates or its Sub-Processors maintain data Processing operations. Customer shall be responsible for ensuring that such Processing of Customer Data is in accordance with Applicable Data Protection Laws and this Addendum.
2. Cross-Border Data Transfer Mechanisms. To the extent that Customer's use of the Services requires the cross-border transfer of Personal Data, which, if not done, would place a jurisdiction (by the European Economic Area ("EEA"), the United Kingdom ("UK"), and Switzerland, collectively, "Restricted Countries") in violation of Vercel located outside of that jurisdiction (a "Transfer Mechanism"), the terms and conditions of Section 12 (Cross-Border Transfer Mechanisms) will apply.

Schedule 2: Technical & Organizational Security Measures

Where applicable, this Schedule 2 will serve as Annex II to the Standard Contractual Clauses. The following describes Vercel's information regarding Vercel's technical and organizational security measures set forth herein.

1. Measures of pseudonymization and encryption of personal data.

Vercel maintains Customer Data in an encrypted format at rest using Advanced Encryption Standard (AES) 256 and in transit TLS 1.2 or higher.

2. Measures for ensuring ongoing confidentiality, integrity, and availability and resilience of processing systems and services.

Vercel's Customer agreements contain strict confidentiality obligations. Additionally, Vercel requires every subprocessor to sign a written agreement containing privacy terms similar to those contained in Vercel's Customer agreements. Vercel maintains a formal security program designed to ensure the security, integrity, availability, and confidentiality of Customer Data and Personal Data and protecting against any these categories.

The Services operate on Amazon Web Services ("AWS"), Microsoft Azure ("Azure"), and Google Cloud Platform ("GCP") cloud infrastructure. Vercel uses AWS, Azure, and GCP to host its infrastructure, including its Services, in various geographic regions physically separated from one another, supported by various tools and processes to maintain high availability of services.

Vercel performs regular backups of Customer Data, which is hosted in AWS, Microsoft Azure, and GCP data centers. Backups are stored redundantly across multiple availability zones and are encrypted in transit and at rest.

Vercel has a separate and dedicated security team that manages Vercel's security program. The Vercel security team performs security risk assessments, maintains threat models, and performs peer reviews to provide independent feedback on the adequacy of the security program. Vercel's security program is based on the NIST Cybersecurity Framework (CSF) and includes administrative, technical, and physical safeguards designed to protect the Services and confidentiality, integrity, availability and resilience of Customer Data. Vercel's security program is reviewed on an annual basis by senior management of the Services and the Audit Committee of the Vercel Board of Directors.

Vercel has a separate and dedicated security team that manages Vercel's security program. The Vercel security team performs security risk assessments, maintains threat models, and performs peer reviews to provide independent feedback on the adequacy of the security program. Vercel's security program is reviewed on an annual basis by senior management of the Services and the Audit Committee of the Vercel Board of Directors.

Vercel's security governance program includes Human Resources and Personnel Management, Access Management, Data Handling, Encryption, Logging & Monitoring, Network Security, Secure Development, Vulnerability Management, Business Continuity Management, Vendor Risk Management, Customer Security, DDoS Protection, Bug Bounties, Business Continuity & Crisis Management, Acceptable Use and Code of Conduct, Physical Security, Incident Response, Risk Management, Change Control, Risk Management of cloud services and are made available for all employees.

Security is integrated at the highest levels of the company, with security representatives from each of the company's departments. Security is part of Vercel's mandatory and coordinate company-wide training.

3. Measures for user identification and authorization.

Vercel personnel are required to use unique user access controls, strong passwords for authentication. Vercel follows the principles of least privilege through role-based access controls when granting access to Customer Data. Only Vercel personnel who are authorized to access Customer Data based on their job functions, roles and responsibilities, and such access requests approval prior to access provisioning. Authorizations are managed via Vercel tools and are reviewed periodically by Vercel information.

Vercel uses commonly-accepted practices to identify and authenticate users attempting to access Vercel systems.

4. Measures for the protection of data during transmission.

Customer Data is encrypted when it is stored between Customer and the Vercel Services in transit.

7. Measures for the protection of data during storage.

Customer Data is stored encrypted using AES-256. Vercel uses AWS KMS managed keys for Customer Data. Customer Data is hosted on AWS, Azure, and GCP in a secure and redundant manner that uses FIPS PKS 2 validated hardware security modules to protect keys that cannot be retrieved from the servers by anyone or compelled to be disclosed by law enforcement. Vercel's Subprocessors, AWS, Azure, Cloudflare and Upstash have presented to the Services and Vercel's technical and organizational security measures.

8. Measures for ensuring physical security of locations at which personal data are processed.

Vercel is a remote first organization with limited physical presence globally, so needed physical security controls for office space are inapplicable. Vercel's Subprocessors provide certain, non-unique clocks, building entrances, CCTVs (closed circuit television), and other physical security measures.

The Services operate on AWS, Microsoft, and GCP and are protected by the security and environmental controls of Amazon, Microsoft, and Google, respectively.

9. Measures for ensuring events logging.

Vercel monitors available organizations, tools, and resources that process or stress Customer Data, including cloud services. Monitoring of security logs is administered by Vercel security team. Vercel security team reviews security logs on a periodic basis.

Use security metrics are available to Customers within the Services. For further information, please see Vercel's documentation regarding security.

10. Measures for ensuring systems configuration, including default configuration.

Vercel applies the Vercel Security Standards attachment to the Agreement to all performance necessary security related activities for the Services across different phases of development, release, and maintenance. Vercel's Subprocessors are subject to security reviews through through product development. These activities include, but are not limited to the performance of: (a) internal security reviews before new Services are released; and (b) ongoing vulnerability scans and remediation of identified issues.

Vercel adheres to a change management process to administer changes to the production environment for the Services, including changes to its underlying software, infrastructure, and Services ("Changes"). In managing Changes, Vercel takes such Changes on a logical basis and ensures that risk is adequate to the change management processes.

11. Measures for internal IT and IT security governance and management.

Vercel maintains a risk-based assessment security program. The framework for Vercel's security program includes administrative, organizational, technical, and physical safeguards reasonably designed to protect the Services and confidentiality, integrity, availability and resilience of Customer Data, taking into account what is appropriate to the nature of the Services and the size and complexity of Vercel's business operation.

Vercel has a separate and dedicated security team that manages Vercel's security program. This team facilitates and supports independent audits and assessments performed by third parties and independent third parties on the security, integrity, and availability of Customer Data. Vercel's security program is oriented to be appropriate to the nature of the Services and the size and complexity of Vercel's business operation.

Security is managed at the highest levels of the company, with executive and leadership teams receiving regular updates regarding Vercel's security risks.

12. Measures for certification/assurance of processes and products.

Vercel conducts various third-party audits, plans to obtain Service Organization Control SOC 2 Type 2 and annual application penetration testing.

AICPA, Audit and SOP Prepare standard SOC 2, 3, and 1, IEC 27001, 27017, 27018, 27701, and ISO/IEC Cloud Security Alliance Security, Trust, Assurance and Risk (CSA STAR) certification. Vercel's security program is based on the NIST CSF and ISO 27001 mapping substantiate the adequacy of its security controls, security and privacy practices, and compliance with applicable laws and regulations. Vercel's security controls are tested at least annually by independent third-party auditors.

13. Measures for ensuring data minimization.

Vercel Customers unilaterally determine what Customer Data they route through the Services. Customers can limit the Data they route or limit access to Customer Data and project responsibility. Vercel provides tools within the Services that give Customers the ability to route, block, and remove Customer Data from the Services. Vercel's Customers are responsible for configuring the Services in a manner that enables them to comply with applicable data protection laws.

14. Measures for ensuring data quality.

Verizon has a three-fold approach for ensuring data quality. These measures include: (i) Verizon's Supplier Quality Management Program which is a set of rigorous tools to improve the code it writes to scale, and (ii) tools and in-kind testing to ensure that the input values match expected values. Verizon applies these measures across the Verizon Group. Verizon's Supplier Quality Management Program is a set of tools and a process that Verizon Services are tested by a second party to verify it meets Verizon's requirements.

Each Verizon Customer provides what Customer Data they code through the Verizon Services and how the Services are configured. As such, Verizon cannot control responsibility model. Verizon ensures that data quality is maintained from the time a Customer provides it to Verizon Services for processing and transmission to the Service recipient. Verizon has a process that allows individuals to exercise their privacy rights, as described in Security Policy Section 6 and Section 8 of Data Processing Addendum.

15. Measures for ensuring limited data retention.

Verizon Customers underlying determine what Customer Data they route through the Verizon Services and how the Services are configured. As such, Verizon operates on a shared responsibility model. Verizon ensures that data is maintained from the time the VzB service functionality of the Service, Verizon's Customers will control retention, inaccessible if/when/after any request by Customer following the termination or expiration of the Agreement. Details of Customer Data Verizon Services collect are reported by Site.

16. Measures for ensuring accountability.

Verizon has adopted measures for ensuring accountability, such as implementing data protection policies across the business, publishing Verizon's Information Security Policy, conducting data Privacy Impact Assessments, implementing mandatory processing activities and recording and reporting Security Incidents involving Personal Data. Verizon conducts regular third-party audits to ensure compliance with set policies and security standards.

17. Measures for allowing data portability and ensuring erasure.

Verizon's Customers have direct relationships with their end users and are responsible for responding to their end user requests. Verizon will assist Customer that Verizon's Data Protection Impact Assessment.

Verizon has adopted functionality that allows Customers to delete end-user Customer Data.

Verizon specifies in the Addendum that it will provide assistance to such Customer as may reasonably be required to comply with Customer's obligations under Applicable Data Protection Laws, including, but not limited to, Customer's obligations under Articles 32 to 36 of the GDPR, taking into account the nature of the Processing and information available to Verizon. Verizon's Customers are responsible for responding to requests for access, correction, restriction, erasure, restriction, portability and objection. If Verizon receives a request from a Data Subject in respect of Personal Data Processed by Verizon, Verizon will advise the Data Subject to submit their request to Customer and Customer will be responsible for responding in any such request.

Verizon has adopted measures that allows individuals to exercise their privacy rights, as described in Security Policy Section and Section of https://www.verizon.com/legal/privacy/.

18. For transfers to (sub) processors, also describe the specific technical and organisational measures to be taken by the (sub) processor to be able to provide assistance to the controller and, for transfers from a processor to a (sub)-processor, to the data exporter.

When Verizon engages in Subprocessor under the Addendum, Verizon's Subprocessor enter into an agreement with data protection terms substantially consistent with the terms of the Addendum. Before the Subprocessor first Processes Personal Data, Verizon carries out adequate due diligence to ensure that the Subprocessor is able to meet the obligations to Customer in addition to implementing technical and organizational measures to protect personal data. Subprocessors must provide Verizon with information that demonstrates their ability to comply with data privacy laws and contractual terms in accordance with Customer's instructions. Verizon's list engage Additional Subprocessors without authorization, (i) that change the Processing of Personal Data in accordance with Customer's instructions or (ii) that conflict with Customer's instructions or Verizon.

UK	The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.
UK Data Protection Laws	All laws relating to data protection, the processing of personal data, privacy and electronic communications as in force from time to time in the UK, including the UK GDPR and the Data Protection Act 2018.
UK GDPR	As defined in section 3 of the Data Protection Act 2018.

4. This Addendum shall always be interpreted in a manner that is consistent with UK Data Protection Laws and the Parties's Relevant Obligations under the Relevant Agreements.

5. If the provisions included in the Addendum EU SCCs amend the Approved EU SCCs in a way which is not permitted under the Approved EU SCCs or the Approved Addendum, such amendment(s) will not be incorporated in this Addendum and the equivalent provision of the Approved EU SCCs will take their place.

6. If there is any inconsistency or conflict between UK Data Protection Laws and the Addendum, UK Data Protection Laws applies.

7. If the meaning of this Addendum is unclear or there is more than one meaning, the meaning which most supports the Parties' Relevant Obligations.

8. Any references to legislation (or specific provisions of legislation) means that legislation (or specific provision) as it may change over time. This includes where that legislation (or specific provision) has been consolidated, re-enacted or replaced after this Addendum has been entered into.

Hierarchy

9. Clauses 13 to 17 of the Approved EU SCCs sets out the Approved EU SCCs's order of precedence. In the event the Approved Addendum, the Addendum EU SCCs, then Relevant Transfers, the hierarchy in Section 9 will prevail.

10. Where there is any inconsistency or conflict between the Approved Addendum and the Addendum EU SCCs (as applied to Relevant Transfers that are subject to the Addendum EU SCCs), except where (and to the extent) that inconsistency or conflict arises as a result of changes made to the Approved Addendum by the parties, in which case those terms will prevail over the terms of the Addendum EU SCCs.

11. Where this Addendum incorporates Addendum EU SCCs which have been entered into to protect transfers subject to the General Data Protection Regulation (EU 2016/679) then the parties acknowledge that nothing in this Addendum impairs those Addendum EU SCCs.

Incorporation of and changes to the EU SCCs

12. This Addendum incorporates the Addendum EU SCCs which are amended to the extent necessary so that:

   - together they operate for data transfers made by the data exporters to the extent that the UK GDPR applies, that the Clauses of Data Protection Laws apply to the data exporter's Processing when making that transfer, and that Relevant Data Subjects have the rights and Appropriate Safeguards for those data transfers.
   - Sections 9 to 11 inserted Clause 9 (Processing of the Addendum EU SCCs), and Clause 11 (Supervision of the Addendum EU SCCs) are replaced with: "The parties agreed that the law of England and Wales will govern any contract or dispute to resolved by the courts of England and Wales, in each case unless the laws of the Exporter's country of establishment or Data Subject's habitual residence applies to the Parties.
   - Unless the Parties have agreed alternative amendments which meet the requirements of Section 12, such provisions of Annex III: "None".
   - The amendments to the Approved EU SCCs other than to the UK Addendum at Section 12 will not vary the Approved EU SCCs in ways that would violate Section 10 UK Addendum.

13. The following amendments to the Addendum EU SCCs for the purpose of Section 12 are made:

   - Clause 1, of the Addendum EU SCCs" means this Addendum, incorporating the Addendum EU SCCs.
   - Clause 2, delete the words:
   "and, with respect to data transfers from controllers to processors and/or processors to processors, standard contractual clauses pursuant to Article 46(2)(c) Regulation (EU) 2016/679"
   - Clause 6 Description of the transfer(s) is replaced with:
   "The details of the transfer(s) and in particular the categories of personal data that are transferred, the purpose(s) for which the personal data is transferred and those specified in Annex 2B where UK Data Protection Laws apply to the data exporter's processing when making that transfer.".
   - Clause 8.7(i) or Clause 9: is replaced with:
   "It is in Importer's benefitting from adequacy regulations pursuant to Section 17A of the Data Protection Act 2018 that cover the transfer.".
   - Clause 8.8(i) of Module 2 and 3: is replaced with:
   "The onward transfer is to a country benefiting from adequacy regulations pursuant to Section 17A of the Data Protection Act 2018 that cover the onward transfer".
   - References to "Regulation (EU) 2018/1725", "Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data (General Data Protection Regulation)" and "that Regulation" are replaced by "UK Data Protection Laws". References to "EU Member State(s)" and "Member State(s)" are replaced with "UK".
   - References to "Regulation (EU) 2016/679" are replaced with "UK GDPR".
   - References to "Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (GDPR)" are replaced with "UK GDPR".
   - References to the "European Union", "Union", "EU", "EU Member State", "Member State" and "EU or Member State" are all replaced with the "UK".
   - Clause 8 Obligations of the Parties" is replaced with "Obligations of the Parties".
   - Clause 13(a) and Part C of Annex I are not used.
   - The "competent supervisory authority" and "supervisory authority" are both replaced with the "Information Commissioner".
   - In Clause 16(e), subsection (i) is replaced with:
   "the Secretary of State makes regulations pursuant to Section 17A of the Data Protection Act 2018 that cover the transfer of personal data to which these clauses apply;".
   - Clause 17 is replaced with:
   "These Clauses are governed by the laws of England and Wales.".
   - Clause 18 is replaced with:
   "Any dispute arising from these Clauses shall be resolved by the courts of England and Wales. A data subject may also bring legal proceedings against the data exporter and/or data importer before the courts of any country in the UK. The parties agree to submit themselves to the jurisdiction of such courts.".

14. The footnotes to the Approved EU SCCs do not form part of the Addendum, except for the footnotes to Clause 8.1.

Amendments to this Addendum

15. The Parties may agree to change Clauses 17 and/or 18 of the Addendum EU SCCs to refer to the laws and/or courts of Scotland or Northern Ireland.

16. If the Parties wish to change the format of the information included in Part 1 Tables of the Approved Addendum, that does not materially reduce the Appropriate Safeguards, nothing precludes that the change unless the Approved Addendum changes.

17. From time to time, the ICO may issue a revised Approved Addendum which:

   - makes reasonable and proportionate changes to the Approved Addendum, including correcting errors in the Approved Addendum; and/or
   - reflects changes to UK Data Protection Laws. The revised Approved Addendum will specify the start date from which the changes to the Approved Addendum are effective ("Revised Approved Addendum"). If the Addendum Incorporating the Approved Addendum, This Addendum is materially affected by a change to the Approved Addendum, then: "Which Parts" means the last date specified.

18. If the EU issues a revised Approved Addendum under Section 18 of any Party's Relevant Tables 1 & 3 (being the Addendum under the Approved EU SCCs, Relevant Transfers to which the Parties jointly elect to be governed by this Addendum), a substantial, disproportionate and demonstrable increase:

   - to the direct costs of performing its obligations under the Addendum; and/or
   - its risk under the Addendum,

   unless the Parties have agreed alternative amendments which remedy such detriment or risk (if any) and such amendments are enforceable, the Parties and/or the Relevant Data Subjects shall also be entitled to terminate this Addendum on a reasonable notice period, by providing written notice to the other Party prior to the commencement of the proposed new Approved Addendum.

20. The Parties do not need the consent of any third party to make changes to this Addendum, but any changes must be made in accordance with its terms.

Alternative Part 2 Mandatory Clauses:

Mandatory Clauses	Part 2: Mandatory Clauses of the Approved Addendum, being the mandatory clauses of the Approved Addendum for controller to processor transfers of personal data to third countries, pursuant to Regulations 2021/914 and in accordance with UK Data Protection Laws.
