DATA PROCESSING AGREEMENT

This Data Processing Agreement ("DPA") applies to the processing of information by SerpApi, LLC (“SerpApi,” “us,” “our,” or “we”) and Yannik Galetto (“Client”, “you”, “your”). This DPA is incorporated into and subject to the terms of the Agreement.

I. DEFINITIONS

A. "Confidential Information" means any and all information or materials disclosed by you or your Representatives (defined below) that are not generally available to the public and that are reasonably treated as confidential by you whether disclosed before or after the effective date of the Agreement or whether disclosed orally, electronically, or in writing; provided, however, that "Confidential Information" does not include information that can be shown (1) to have been obtained by SerpApi from a third party that SerpApi reasonably believes is not bound by any confidentiality agreement, privilege, or fiduciary duty to maintain the confidentiality of such information; (2) to be generally known and readily available to the public; or (3) to have been developed independently by SerpApi without use of the Confidential Information disclosed under this DPA.

B. "Data Privacy Laws" means (1) the EU General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 (“GDPR”); (2) the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 (“CCPA”); and (3) all other laws concerning the protection of Personal Data (as defined below). Other terms in this DPA that have meanings ascribed to them in Data Privacy Laws, including, but not limited to, "Data Controller," "Data Processor," and “Data Subject” shall carry the meanings set forth under the GDPR, unless otherwise defined.

C. “Information” means all information Processed (as defined below) by SerpApi on behalf of you, and includes Confidential Information and Personal Data.

D. “Information Security Incident” or “ISI” means an act or circumstance in which there is any unauthorized activity that threatens the confidentiality, integrity, or availability of Information. It includes any actual or suspected breach of security leading to the accidental or unlawful destruction, encryption, loss, alteration, unauthorized disclosure of, or access to Information transmitted, stored, or otherwise Processed.

E. “Losses" means all of a party's incurred damages, liabilities, judgments, settlements, and costs and expenses (including, but not limited to, the costs and expenses of any and all actions and demands, claims, assessments, judgments, settlements, and compromises relating thereto and the costs and expenses of attorneys and other professionals' fees and expenses incurred in the investigation or defense thereof or the enforcement of rights).

F. "Person" means an individual, a corporation, a partnership, a limited liability company, an association, a trust, or any other entity or organization of any kind, including, but not limited to, a governmental authority or agency.

G. "Personal Data" means any information that could reasonably be associated or linked, whether directly or indirectly, to an identified or identifiable living individual or household.

H. "Process," "Processes," "Processing," or "Processed" has the meanings set forth in the Data Privacy Laws. It includes any operation or set of operations which is performed upon Personal Data or on sets of Personal Data, whether or not by automated means, such as adapting, aligning, altering, collecting, combining, consulting, destroying, disclosing, disseminating, erasing, organizing, recording, restricting, retaining, retrieving, selling, sharing, storing, structuring, transmitting, using, or otherwise engaging with Personal Data.

I. "Representatives" means, as to any party, the affiliates or subsidiaries of such party and the directors, officers, employees, attorneys, accountants, consultants, financial advisors, other advisors, and other service providers, agents, and representatives of such party, its affiliates, or its subsidiaries; provided, however, that in no event shall either party be deemed to be a Representative of the other party.

J. “Services” means SerpApi’s web scraping and web searching technology as described in the Agreement.

K. “Third-Party Processor” means any party that SerpApi authorizes to Process Personal Data, including other Data Processors, sub-processors and service providers.

II. GENERAL

To the extent that SerpApi Processes Personal Data in the course of providing the Services, each party acknowledges: (1) for the purpose of the GDPR, Client is the Data Controller of the Personal Data and SerpApi is the Data Processor; (2) for the purpose of the CCPA, Client is the Business and SerpApi is the Service Provider (as those terms are defined under the CCPA); and (3) for the purpose of all other Data Privacy Laws, Client is the party who determines the means and purpose of the Processing of the Personal Data and SerpApi is the party Processing the Personal Data.

III. DESCRIPTION OF THE PROCESSING

The subject-matter and duration of the Processing, the nature and purpose of the Processing, the type of Personal Data, and the categories of Data Subjects are set forth here and additionally in the Agreement.

A. Subject-Matter of Processing: The subject-matter of the Processing is to render the Services under the DPA or the Agreement.

B. Duration of Processing: The duration of the Processing is the duration of the provision of the Services under the DPA or the Agreement.

C. Nature & Purpose of Processing: The nature and purpose of the Processing is in connection with the provision of the Services under the DPA or the Agreement.

D. Data Subjects: The categories of Data Subjects may include: i) your personnel, officers, directors, board members, consultants, advisors, agents, clients, business associates, and ii) other individuals meeting web search criteria specified by you in connection with the Services.

E. Personal Data Categories: The types of Personal Data Processed may include: individuals' names, titles, contact information (including address, telephone number, and email address), identification numbers, and other types of Personal Data submitted to the Services.

F. Sensitive Personal Data Categories: When applicable to a specific engagement or project with you, SerpApi may Process Sensitive Personal Data on behalf of you. We consider Sensitive Personal Data to include (a) any data pertaining to or collected from children, (b) confidential identifying information, such as social security number, driver's license number, or passport number, and (c) any data pertaining to an individual's or household's: biometrics; criminal record; disciplinary history; familial status; finances; genetics; immigration or residency status; mental or physical health status; political, religious, or philosophical beliefs; racial or ethnic origin; sex life; sexual orientation; social history; or trade union membership.

IV. SERPAPI'S DATA PRIVACY OBLIGATIONS

SerpApi agrees to:

A. Abide by applicable Data Privacy Laws;

B. Treat all Personal Data as Confidential Information;

C. Only Process Personal Data in accordance with your documented instructions to the extent required for the provision of the Services or to comply with your obligations under this DPA or the Agreement;

D. Immediately notify you if, in SerpApi's opinion, SerpApi can no longer meet its obligation to Process the Personal Data for the limited and specified purposes set forth under this DPA or the Agreement. At such time, SerpApi will cease Processing or take other reasonable and appropriate steps to remediate any unauthorized Processing;

E. Immediately notify you if, in SerpApi's opinion, any of your instructions infringe or would breach Data Privacy Laws; and

F. Assist you with undertaking an assessment of the impact of Processing that Personal Data, and with any consultations with a supervisory authority, if and to the extent an assessment or consultation is required to be carried out under Data Privacy Laws.

V. DATA SUBJECT RIGHTS

A. Taking into account the nature of the Processing, SerpApi will assist you by appropriate technical and organizational measures, insofar as this is possible, for the fulfilment of your obligation to respond to requests by Data Subjects to exercise their rights laid down in applicable Data Privacy Laws.

B. If a Data Subject makes a written request to SerpApi to exercise any such rights, SerpApi will forward the request to you promptly and will provide you with cooperation and assistance reasonably requested by you in relation to that request.

VI. SERPAPI'S SECURITY OBLIGATIONS

A. SerpApi agrees to protect and maintain the security of all Information and shall have in place a comprehensive security program for safeguarding all Information that complies with all applicable laws and regulations relating to information security, privacy, confidentiality, and nondisclosure.

B. Taking into account the nature, scope, context, and purpose of Processing, SerpApi will implement and maintain appropriate technical and organizational measures to ensure a level of security appropriate to the risk, including the risk of unauthorized or unlawful Processing of Information, and of accidental or unlawful loss, alteration, unauthorized disclosure or destruction of, or damage to, Information.

C. SerpApi will implement and maintain written security policies applicable to the Processing of Information. At a minimum, such policies will include assignment of internal responsibility for information security management, devoting adequate personnel resources to information security, carrying out verification checks on permanent staff who will have access to the Information, conducting appropriate background checks, requiring employees, vendors, and others with access to Information to enter into written confidentiality agreements, and conducting training to make employees, vendors, and others with access to the Information aware of information security risks presented by the Processing.

D. SerpApi will compile and maintain a reasonable disaster recovery and business continuity plan so that it may continue to provide the Services to you in the event of a disaster. In addition, the plan will adequately address planning for pandemic and other circumstances that may result in material loss of availability of personnel.

E. SerpApi will permit you or your representatives to assess our operations and comply with all reasonable requests by you to enable you to verify compliance with our security obligations under this DPA or the Agreement.

F. Where practical given the nature of the Services, SerpApi will maintain high availability in line with industry best practices for systems that contain Information.

G. SerpApi will maintain written procedures that are fully implemented and applicable to the handling of an Information Security Incident ("ISI"). SerpApi will notify you, including by email, promptly after becoming aware of an ISI. Any such notification made to you will include, the following information: i) A description of the nature of the ISI, including, where possible, a description of the impacted Information, the categories and approximate number of Data Subjects concerned, and the categories and approximate number of Personal Data records concerned; ii) Time, date, and location of the ISI; iii) The name and contact details of SerpApi's information security officer, data protection officer, or another contact point where more information can be obtained; iv) Any other pertinent information regarding the ISI and its aftermath, including a description of the likely consequences and risks to Data Subjects; and v) A description of the measures taken or proposed to be taken by SerpApi to address the ISI, including, where appropriate, measures to mitigate its possible adverse effects.

H. In the event of an ISI, SerpApi will (a) coordinate with you to take steps to minimize the impact of the ISI; (b) cooperate with you in managing the response to the ISI, including, but not limited to, providing you or your Representatives with information and documents in our possession; (c) provide you with all cooperation and assistance reasonably requested to enable you to perform a thorough investigation into the ISI, to formulate a correct response, to take suitable further steps in respect of the ISI, and to notify the relevant supervisory authority and relevant Data Subject(s) (as applicable); and (d) promptly use our best efforts to prevent a recurrence of any such ISI.

I. SerpApi will not inform any third party of any ISI without first obtaining your written consent other than to inform a complainant that the matter has been forwarded to you. You shall have the sole right and responsibility to determine: (a) whether notice of an ISI is to be reported to any individuals, regulators, law enforcement agencies, consumer reporting agencies or others as required by law or regulation; (b) the contents of any such notices; and (c) whether any remediation may be offered to affected individuals and the nature and extent of any such remediation.

J. SerpApi agrees to maintain and preserve all documents, records, and other data related to the ISI subject to the terms of this DPA or the Agreement.

VII. SHARING OF PERSONAL DATA

A. SerpApi will never sell, share, provide, transfer, disclose, retain, or use Personal Data for any purpose other than for the specific purpose of performing the Services. Before disclosing or providing access to Personal Data to any of our personnel, employees, or other Representatives, SerpApi will ensure that those persons: i) Have undergone appropriate training in data protection and the care and handling of Personal Data; and ii) Are bound to hold the information in confidence to at least the same standard as required under this DPA (whether under a written agreement or otherwise).

B. With respect to use of Third Party Processors, SerpApi will:

(i) Not engage a Third Party Processor without general authorization from you. For the avoidance of doubt, you acknowledge that the nature of the Services requires SerpApi to use proxy servers and to submit search requests to search engines. You hereby authorize the foregoing subject to SerpApi providing you the name of such entities upon your written or email request;

and

(ii) Ensure that any Third Party Processor is bound by data privacy obligations that are equivalent to those set out in this DPA (including, but not limited to, the obligation to implement appropriate technical and organizational measures) and supervise compliance thereof. You may request that SerpApi provide confirmation that such Third Party Processor is in compliance with its obligations.

VIII. TRANSFERS OF PERSONAL DATA

A. SerpApi will not transfer Personal Data to, or Process Personal Data in, any third country or territory without your prior written consent unless (and for so long as): i) There has been a European Community finding of adequacy pursuant to Article 45 of the GDPR in respect of that country or territory; or ii) You or SerpApi and the relevant importing entity are party to a contract in relation to the export of Personal Data incorporating standard contractual clauses in the form adopted by the European Commission under Decision 2021/914/EU, mechanisms issued by the UK Information Commissioner's office including an international data transfer agreement or an international data transfer addendum to the European Commission's standard contractual clauses, or an equivalent data transfer agreement meeting the requirements of Data Privacy Laws.

B. Where any relied-upon mechanism for cross-border transfers of Personal Data is subsequently modified, revoked, or found by a supervisory authority, court of competent jurisdiction, or other governmental authority to be an invalid means of complying with the restrictions on transferring Personal Data to a third country or territory as set out in Data Privacy Laws, the parties shall act in good faith to implement an alternative solution to comply with the provisions of Data Privacy Laws in respect of any such transfer.

IX. COMPLIANCE

A. SerpApi will notify you promptly if we receive any complaint, notice, or communication that relates directly or indirectly to the Processing of Personal Data, or to either party's compliance with Data Privacy Laws, and shall fully cooperate and assist you in relation to any such complaint, notice, communication, or non-compliance.

B. Upon your reasonable written request, SerpApi will provide all information necessary to demonstrate compliance with this DPA, and allow you or an auditor appointed by you to carry out audits, including inspections, whether physical or via remote access, of facilities, equipment, documents, and electronic data, relating to the Processing of Personal Data by SerpApi or any Third Party Processor, to verify compliance with this DPA.

X. TERMINATION

Unless expressly stated otherwise in this DPA or the Agreement, upon termination of this DPA or the Agreement, SerpApi will, and will take reasonable steps to ensure that each Third Party Processor will, immediately cease to use the Personal Data and will, at your option, either i) return the Personal Data to you or to a Data Processor nominated by you, or ii) delete the Personal Data and all copies and extracts of the Personal Data unless required to retain a copy in accordance with any laws.

XI. INDEMNIFICATION

SerpApi agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Client and its respective Representatives from and against any and all Losses incurred in connection with third party claims to the extent conclusively determined to have arisen out of or resulting from any breach of this DPA or of Data Privacy Laws by SerpApi or its Representatives.
